DEDICATION
MR. JOHN HART
1980 GRADE ADMINISTRATOR

Mr. Hart,

To show our appreciation for your concern, your dedication, your guidance, and your friendship through our high school years, we dedicate our yearbook to you.

The Class of 1980

FACULTY

EDWARD F. GALLAGHER, PRINCIPAL

DESPITE THE NORMAL UPSETS IN PUBLIC EDUCATION, YOUR CLASS HAS GROWN AND MATURED TO A POSITION OF QUIET, YET DEFINITE, LEADERSHIP. AT NORTH, YOU HAVE LIVED WITH GROUP SETBACKS, BUT YOU CONTINUED TO WORK. YOU HAVE LIVED WITH PUBLIC PRESSURE, BUT YOU EARNED THE RESPECT OF THE COMMUNITY. YOU HAVE LIVED WITH ADMINISTRATIVE AND FACULTY DOUBT, BUT YOU PROVED THAT SINGLE EPISODES DO NOT TRULY REFLECT YOUR CHARACTER.

YOU ARE A CONSTANT REMINDER THAT OUR FOCUS SHOULD BE ON THE INDIVIDUAL - - MANY TIMES, THE CLASS OF 1980 RALLIED INDIVIDUAL EFFORTS TO PRESENT A UNITED APPROACH TO SCHOOL PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES. AN OUTSTANDING EXAMPLE OF YOUR RESILIENCY WAS YOUR ATTEMPT AT ESTABLISHING A MUCH NEEDED STUDENT-FACULTY FORUM. I HOPE YOUR EFFORTS BECOME A REALITY.

I AM CERTAIN THAT MOST MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1980 HAVE PROFITED FROM THE NORTH HIGH EXPERIENCE. I'M SURE THE HOURS SPENT AND THE LESSONS LEARNED WILL ADD TO YOUR POST GRADUATE REPERTOIRE. BE MINDFUL THAT YOU MUST APPLY THE ACADEMIC, THE SOCIAL, THE HUMANITARIAN EXPERIENCE TO ALL YOU DO. YOUR WORTH, YOUR SUCCESS AND YOUR INFLUENCE WILL SHAPE THE LIVES OF THOSE WHO FOLLOW YOU AT NORTH.

YOUR TEACHERS HAVE EXPRESSED GREAT CONFIDENCE IN YOU. YOUR TEACHERS ARE IMPRESSED WITH YOUR GROWTH AND MATURITY. YOU'VE DONE MUCH IN FOUR YEARS. YOUR TEACHERS EXPECT MUCH OF YOUR CLASS. THEY KNOW THAT THE PRIDE THEY FEEL ON GRADUATION DAY IS PRIDE WELL PLACED.

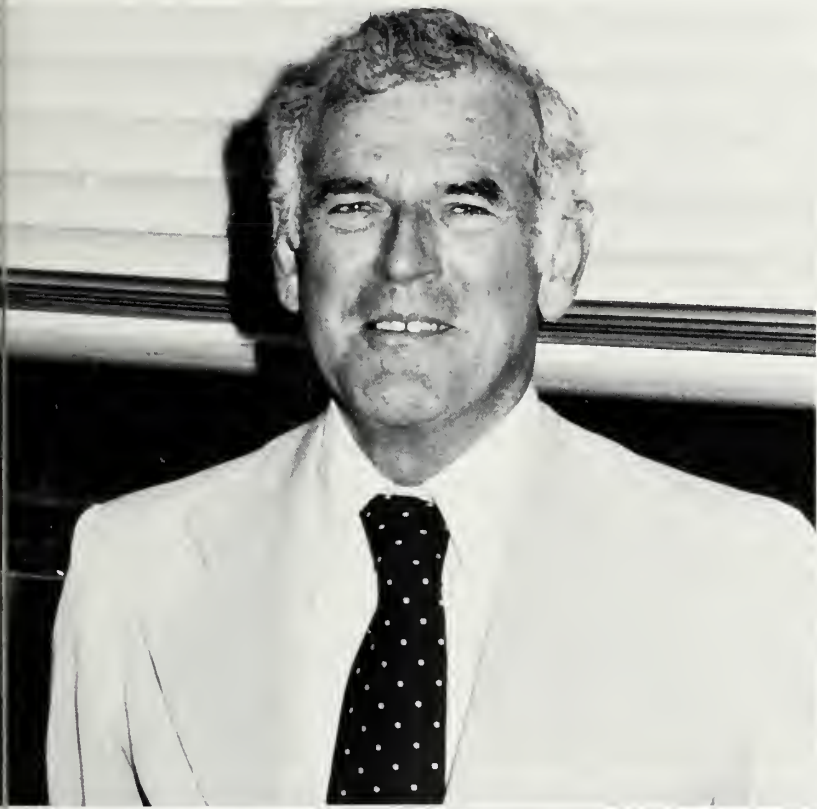

DO NOT LOOK BACK - - EXCEPT FONDLY. YOU HAVE A GREAT START ON SOME VERY GREAT FUTURES.

Edward F. Gallagher

A black and white photograph of a large crowd of students, likely at a school assembly or sporting event. The students are gathered on a grassy area in front of a building with large windows. Many students have their arms raised in the air, cheering. The crowd is dense, filling most of the frame. The building in the background has a grid-like window pattern. The overall atmosphere is one of excitement and celebration.

IN MEMORY OF EDMUND PURCELL

FOR ED

Once again we are left alone,
And we don't know what to do.

It's said that this is the way of the world,
But the words just don't ring true.

For though words don't express our deepest feelings,
The look in your eyes comes near

To explaining to me. So tomorrow I'll see all has meaning.
That in time will be clear.

But right now, all this meaning is lost to me
And there's something I can't comprehend:

Why an unhappy ending to a promising start,
And why they've taken my friend.

And though my eyes are touched by mist,
On his face I see a smile,

All the many times he made me laugh,
Held my interest as we talked for a while.

And when I die, I hope that I will have
Those who'll do what we've done,

Who'll believe in my spirit, see truth when they hear it,
And say "We were better off before he was gone."

Though his blood ran not in my veins,
I still have lost a brother.

Ler his laughter still find us, let his absence remind us THAT WE LIVE AND DIE IN EACH OTHER.

A black and white photograph of a basketball court. The court is viewed from an elevated angle, showing the key, free-throw line, and three-point arc. The word "SPORTS" is printed in a bold, serif font within a white rectangular box, centered over the court. The background is dark and out of focus, suggesting a gymnasium setting.

The F.N.H.S. Key Club is an organization dedicated to the service of the school and community. Throughout the year the Key Club has participated in many service projects. Members served as guides for Parents' Night in the fall. The club raised money and collected clothes for the Pine Street Inn, a refuge for alcoholics and drug addicts in Boston. Members assisted in the distribution of food to the hundreds of needy people who depend on the Inn for survival. Once a month food was sent to help feed the 'guests' at Pine Street. The club raised $650 from students and faculty to aid the starving children of Cambodia, and collected $100 at the Thanksgiving Day football game for the Daryl Williams Fund. Club members have helped out at Cushing Hospital by visiting and assisting the senior citizens.

The Community Action Program affords students the opportunity to extend their education beyond the classroom by gaining insight and sensitivity to others while voluntarily providing a useful service to the agencies involved within the community. Students contribute their time and talents in such capacities as teacher aids in our elementary schools, in many, varied programs for children with special needs, with the elderly, the disadvantaged, in pre-school programs, hospitals, nursing homes, day care centers, etc. The eager, enthusiastic response of our students and the Directors of the agencies involved attests to the success of this worthwhile educational program.

The American Field Service is an exchange program which gives students the opportunity to spend time in another country. It works two ways: American students can study in a foreign country or foreign students can come and attend school in the United States.

Jim Lennon spent his senior year as an A.F.S. student in Sweden.

REFLECTIONS

The candle burns into the night.
But no matter how dark the night becomes,
we shall always be witness to the candle's flame of many colors
and its glow of remembrance.
Only we,
in courage, strength and understanding of ourselves and others,
can determine how long and how bright
the light burns.
If we believe in ourselves and learn to accept the people around us for what they are,
the flame
and its radiant light will shine eternally.

Eric Bloom and Glenn Orenti
